Editorial

A Threat From Harry Weatherford

Midlothian Mirror 8/10/68

Ex-deputy Sheriff Roger Craig continues to receive static from his former associates in the office of Dallas County Sheriff Bill Decker.

Craig, now a Corporation Judge in Midlothian, called the Dallas County Sheriff's office on Saturday in relation to a civil suit to be heard in Midlothian.

Answering the phone was Deputy Sheriff Harry Weatherford who asked: "Are you in jail?" Craig replied that he was the Corporation Court Judge in Midlothian. Weatherford responded: "If you ever try to arraign me, there will be a Goddamned gun battle."

Weatherford, is, of course, angry with Craig for telling what Weatherford did on November 22, 1963. Weatherford said he was on the roof of the Records building with a rifle—assigned there by Bill Decker.